Community Cleanup Activity to Beautify the City of Williamsport

Litter Crew: To kick start the week-long Susquehanna Greenway Partnership (SGP) Richard James Memorial Cleanup, CleanScapes participants will remove litter from 1 mile of sidewalk right-of-ways on Little League Blvd. & West Fourth St. Cleaning up these public areas, before SGP April 22-28 event, will highlight the importance of litter-free public spaces. Long pants are recommended & closed toes shoes are mandatory (no bare feet or sandals). An extra jacket, hat, & shoes are highly recommended. Youth between the ages of 12-17 must be accompanied by a participating adult.

Also needed: Truck Transport Driver Load filled trash bags into your truck, drive to the nearby drop-off location & unload the filled bags. (Truck bed may get muddy or scratched.)

Pre-registration is requested by 12 noon on Friday April 12

Registration & questions should be given to Project Director Elisabeth Lynch McCoy at 570.726.3511 or clintoncountycleanscapes@yahoo.com. Future outdoor community cleanup events will be posted on www.cleanscapes-ncpa.com & www.facebook.com/CleanScapesNCPA. See you in the City!
